

Reading the Original Scientific Literature: Concrete Coping Strategies 😊

1. What is most difficult or confusing about reading this article?
2. What is the research question the authors are trying to address?
3. What is the importance and main contribution of this article? How can you figure this out?
4. What questions are raised directly by this article?
5. What questions are raised in your mind as you read this article?
6. According to the authors, where does the uncertainty lie in the understanding that is evolving?
7. Which ideas or sections in the article do we need to understand more deeply and why, in relation to our course focus?