

Logic: Changeable, forms beliefs, can also change beliefs, very little effect on faith unless beliefs change.

Belief: Believed to be "true", formed out of logic, acted on with thought but without doubt.

Faith: Belief without logic of any type, acted on without consciousness, difficult to change faith.